Anna Leonardi – Artistic Director

Oboist and English horn of the Orchestra Luigi Cherubini conducted by Maestro Riccardo Muti, Anna Leonardi has completed musical studies at the Istituto Superiore di Studi Musicali “G. Briccialdi” in Terni with Maestro Andrea Mio and successfully achieved a Masters in Music Performance at The University of Italian Switzerland with highest marks and praise.

She has studied Orchestra Conducting in 2012 under the guidance of Prof. Ennio Nicotra and, from 2011 to 2013, she was assistant to the conductor of the FAO Staff Coop Orchestra, of which she also followed the artistic direction. In 2013 she held the title of First Oboe and English Horn at the Experimental Opera Theatre of Spoleto and collaborated with numerous orchestras across Italy (Orchestra del Maggio Musicale Fiorentino, Orchestra La Verdi di Milano, Orchestra Sinfonica Abruzzese, Orchestra del Teatro Olimpico di Vicenza).

Since 2017, she has been the artistic director of the Festival della Piana del Cavaliere and since 2019 of the Vittorio Calamani Philharmonic Orchestra.
